A new DSTLRY debut in an oversized PRESTIGE format!

A Mischief Of Magpies #1 CVR A Matias Bergara

Comic Script by SIMON SPURRIER; Illustrated by MATÍAS BERGARA; Cover Design or Artwork by MATÍAS BERGARA

NEW DSTLRY SERIES DEBUT FROM SIMON SPURRIER AND MATÍAS BERGARA!

Mar has a secret. Sometimes, without warning, he falls out of the world. This would be an inconvenience if his life wasn't already such a drag.

When he's gone, he finds himself in an extraordinary city. A city which is also a machine, endlessly crossing a shoreless ocean. A city of two halves: the bright, bustling spires above the waves, and the beast-haunted twilight halls below. And between, clowning along the rusting beach, a troupe of anarchic magpies with all the answers but none of the questions.

Recipients of the Angoulême Sélection Officielle, GLAAD Award, and multiple Eisner Award nominations, creators Simon Spurrier and Mat as Bergara present a new fantasy masterpiece in the tradition of Coda and Step By Bloody Step, driving the comics medium into new, beautiful, baleful waters.

Every issue from DSTLRY is presented in our perfect bound Prestige format, featuring wrap-around covers with spot gloss on robust cover stock, complemented by 48 pages of exquisite interior stock. It's the DSTLRY difference.

For fans of THE NEVERENDING STORY, ARCANE, and THE BOY AND THE HERON.

One-Shot

For fans who feel Homer's epic or Christopher Nolan's upcoming blockbuster The Odyssey could use more kaiju!

Godzilla's Monsterpiece Theatre Presents: Godzilla's The Odyssey Cover A (Scioli)

Written by FRANK TIERI;
Illustrated by ILIAS KYRIAZIS;
Cover Design or Artwork by TOM SCIOLI

Godzilla's tour of the literary canon continues as it smashes its way across The Odyssey in this oversize standalone one-shot!

Homer's The Odyssey is widely considered to be the greatest epic of all time. So, how could you possibly make it more epic? Fill it with kaiju, that's how. Odysseus' journey home was already challenging enough, but what if instead of storms, sirens, and cyclopes, the gods sent monsters even more powerful than the titans? And what if Zeus sent the most powerful one of all to assist the king on his odyssey?

It's like Homer said: "Of all creatures that breathe and move upon the earth, nothing is bred that is stronger than Godzilla."

Written by Frank Tieri, illustrated by Ilias Kyriazis, and featuring part two of Tom Scioli's Godzilla vs. Robin Hood.

Estranged from his family and living under a government-issued alias, ex-black ops agent Morgan Power endures a life in suburban exile as a delivery driver for a major global courier company. It's a 180 from his action-packed classified work abroad, until a routine shift puts him in the crosshairs of a domestic terrorist takedown. Trapped in the parking garage of a besieged corporate office park, Power goes back to basics with nothing but his survival skills and a delivery van full of unopened packages—and endless possibilities—to fight his way from floor to floor and free the hostages. But some boxes hold more trash than treasure, and Powers will also have to contend with his intensifying PTSD as the situation escalates and time runs out.

Writer B. Clay Moore (Bloodland, The Leading Man) and rising artist Daniel Gete (Skin Police) deliver a classic lockdown thriller with a fresh twist!

Trish has issued her warning: Harvey better get his affairs in order, because she won't stop until one of them is dead. Only Harvey isn't sure there is a whole lot worth putting in order, much less fighting for. The one-time football hero is now just a washout that no one has much time for. Maybe Trish would be doing everyone a favor by taking him out. Will Harvey give them the satisfaction? The tension is rising and there are a lot of fights to be had before the big Showdown!

From two rising stars, writer Dave Wielgosz (Man-Bat; TMNT: Mutant Nation) and artist Tadd Galusha (Godzilla: Unnatural Disasters), with covers by Steve Lieber (Whiteout; Superman's Pal Jimmy Olsen).

A stunning graphic novel adaptation of the national bestseller Mister Magic—previewed in a Comics Giveaway Day™ sampler!

Mister Magic: The Graphic Novel

Written by KIERSTEN WHITE; Adapted by SCOTT PETERSON; Illustrated by VERONICA FISH and ANDY FISH

Thirty years after a tragic accident shut down production of the classic children's program Mister Magic, the five surviving cast members have done their best to move on. But just as generations of cultishly devoted fans still cling to the lessons they learned from the show, the cast have spent their lives searching for the happiness they felt while they were on it. But with no surviving videos or scripts, no evidence of who directed or produced the show, and no records of who—or what—the beloved host actually was, memories are all the former circle of friends has.

A surprise encounter with Val's old castmates brings them all together for a reunion. Back to the remote desert filming compound that feels like it's been waiting for them all this time. Back among friends they haven't seen for years, but who somehow understand one another better than anyone has since. After all, they're the only ones who hold the secret of that circle, the mystery of the magic man in his infinitely black cape, and, maybe, the answers to what really happened on that deadly last day.

This gripping graphic adaptation of Mister Magic fully immerses you in the psycho-logical thriller that was named a best book of the year.

The Black Schooner

Rebellion on the Amistad,
A Graphic Novel

Written by DAVID LESTER and MARCUS REDIKER; Edited by PAUL BUHLE; Illustrated by DAVID LESTER; Contributions by PAUL BUHLE

A stunning graphic history of how enslaved Africans on board the Amistad rebelled and captured the slave ship in 1839.

Divided into 3 parts, The Black Schooner begins with the intense night of the uprising and takes readers on a reconstructed journey: from sailing on the open ocean to a New Haven, Connecticut, jail, where the captured Africans awaited trial for mutiny and murder; to the Supreme courtroom that found that the rebels had been illegally enslaved and would now be free to return to their native land. Through it all, artist David Lester chronicles their story using striking imagery, showing how they achieved an unexpected and powerful international victory for the abolitionist movement and forced some of the most powerful people in the world to confront the issue of human bondage.

Gigs

Written by MARK MOSEDALE

A.I. took the work. Gigs replaced jobs. Ordinary people are left to scrape together lives in a world that's no longer built for them. These are their stories.

In a frighteningly near future where Basic Income is supplemented by gig work assigned by "the app"...an octogenarian punk and a lonely young worker seek escape through music. A street artist makes art by night and paints over it by day. A has-been detective chases a case into a forgotten world. A drug runner makes a long, strange delivery. A writer marks her days on a decaying space station she can't leave. And a refugee asks for help in the last free place.

With a hard-won blend of biting satire and humanistic passion, two creators from the North of England weave together six divergent chapters into an extraordinary graphic novel.

Fans of the everyone's favorite feline foodie will want to make a solid plan to catch this latest batch of rib-tickling comics.

Monsters

Written by STÉPHANE SERVANT;
Illustrated by NICOLAS ZOULIAMIS;
Translated by SARAH ARDIZZONE

It all starts when a fascinating travelling circus arrives in a small, peaceful village...

The townspeople, eager for excitement, are abuzz with curiosity about the mysterious circus that is rumoured to feature a terrifying monster. That evening, Otto, the narrator, takes his place among the eager crowd inside the dimly lit circus tent. The air crackles with anticipation, and as the curtains slowly part, the audience gasps—but not for the reason they expected. The so-called "monster" on stage is, in fact, a human child. Meanwhile, the onlookers in the crowd are actually monsters—both terrifying and grotesque! Otto, whose face is finally revealed, is also a hairy monster. Little by little, Otto and the human child get to know each other, and change the way they both look at the world.

Fish and Water

Written by GENGOROH TAGAME;
Translated by ANNE M. ISHII

A tender and beautifully illustrated story, FISH AND WATER is a new graphic novel from Eisner award-winning graphic novelist Gengoroh Tagame—the brilliant mind behind My Brother's Husband and Our Colors.

Fish and Water, which follows the unlikely love story of two "straight" friends. Having met at a mutual friend's wedding, Akira, a business sales administrator, and Koji, a freelance writer, quickly become close buddies. One day, during a visit with a farm client, Akira is offered a case of freshly picked cabbage. Since no one at his office wants it, and he is no cook, Akira decides to see if Koji (who loves to cook) might be interested. Koji accepts and invites Akira to join him. Lonely and in the midst of pandemic-related shutdowns, Akira welcomes the chance and one meal becomes many. Once they get past how to be COVID-cautious, they become quite relaxed with each other, creating an amusing but emotionally perplexing scenario. Eventually, Akira and Koji grapple with deciding if they are just friends, or something more.

Part exceptionally drawn character study, part contemporary comedy of manners, Fish and Water is a delightful love story for the modern era, considering how love and connection can find you in the strangest ways.
